Location

176 km NW of Kishinev
48° 27´/27° 47´

Region

Oknitsa

Jewish Population, Pre-Holocaust

2,781 (79.4% of general population in 1930)
Former synagogue in Ataki, now a cultural center, 1992
Department store formerly owned by a Jewish family in Ataki, c. 1960

Jewish cemetery in nearby Volchinets, where the Jews of Ataki were buried. Nearly 1,000 tombstones remain, 1992.

Jewish cemetery in nearby Volchinets, 1992

Excerpted from Jewish Roots in Ukraine and Moldova and published on this website with permission from the publisher, Routes to Roots Foundation, Inc.
A former Jewish school destroyed in the 1960s to make way for new houses (photo, c. 1962)

A Jewish cemetery in nearby Volchinets, 1992

Former Jewish district in Ataki, 1992