

ARCHIVAL CODES

Repository Location    Town/city where material is located

Repository locations within Belarus, Lithuania, Poland and Ukraine when more than one are in the same city:

Berlin	State Archive (Geheimes Staatsarchiv) in Berlin
Berlin2	New Synagogue Berlin - Centrum Judaicum
Grodno	National Historical Archives of Belarus in Grodno
Grodno2	Grodno Oblast Archives
Kiev	Central State Historical Archive of Ukraine, Kiev
Kiev2	State Archive of Kiev Oblast
Kiev3	V. Vernadsky National Library of Ukraine
Kiev4	Reference Library of the Central State Archives of Ukraine
Lvov	Central State Historical Archive of Lvov, Lvov
Lvov2	State Archive of Lvov Oblast
Lvov3	Stefanyk Library, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine
Minsk	National Historical Archives of Belarus in Minsk
Minsk2	National Archives of the Republic of Belarus
Minsk3	Minsk Oblast Archives
Vilnius	Lithuanian State Historical Archives
Vilnius2	Lithuanian Central State Archives
Warsaw	Central Archives of Historical Records (AGAD)
Warsaw 2	State Archive of the Capital City of Warsaw

Country	Current location of the town/city
Oblast	Current administrative district/province where town is located
Region	Current region where the town is located
Town Name	As transliterated from the Russian spelling
Years Available	Year-span of archival material
Example:	1892–1939 (material from 1892 to 1939, with no known gaps)
	1892/1939 (material within these years, but with gaps)

Important Note to Remember

The inventory lists provided by the archives in Belarus, Poland, Ukraine, Lithuania and Moldova list the year/ span of documents, followed by the archival numbers. Thus, it is not always possible to identify which archival number corresponds to a particular year or year-span.

Example: 1842/1844; 1857; 1859–1861; 1873

270/2/4,7,9,12;273/1/3–4;279/1/78

Therefore, the archival inventories in this database should be used in conjunction with the fond/opis/delo numbers (or names) assigned by each archive.