Dear Miriam:

It is truly a pleasure for me to write to inform you that your name was submitted as a nominee to the Advisory Board of the Center and was subsequently approved. Therefore, we would be honored if you would agree to participate.

Unfortunately, Miriam, the meeting must be held the week of the UHAC convention due to scheduling constraints of National Headquarters staff. I am sorry you won't be able to join us this time, but we'll give you plenty advance notice for the next meeting.

I have enclosed the minutes of the last Board meeting.

Sincerely,

Diane Paul
Director

MEMORANDUM

TO: MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

FROM: LINDA KLEIN LK

RE: UPDATE ON RESTITUTION FOR HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS

Saul Kagen was kind enough to send 500 copies of the newest edition of the Guide to Compensation and Restitution for Holocaust Survivors. Copies will also be sent to caseworkers in your respective chapters. Additionally, Miriam Weiner has provided information on her latest resource guide, entitled Jewish Roots In Ukraine And Moldova. It is a remarkable book, the culmination of eight years of intense research overseas. Miriam has returned to the U.S. to a flood of well-deserved publicity requests.
